

October 03, 2025: On Diddy Sentenced to 50 Months

(Sign 50, Aligning a Vessel Below Enlightenment)

Is this justice? Ask anyone that served their sentence if Diddy got off light - they'll tell you. There is at least two-tiers of modern injustice - and some are absolutely above the law.

Isn't that right, Freemasons? For all of your 'Founding Fathers' bullspit, you all seem to adhere to none of it. Your organization is a fake lie.

Also, Ronald Mac Donald, you can remove your spy craft and truck sounds from our bedroom, peeping Tom.

Honestly, Elon and Donald. Can't I do anything in my home without your stupid spy 'echo' being driven into our life as 'feedback'?. You two are the lamest group of losers I have ever imagined.

Are you seriously this obsessed with your own selves that you must drive your opinion into my bedroom at night? I don't care about your misguided judgments! I don't need to hear your justifications!

Sean 'Diddy' Combs sentenced to only 4 years in prison after salacious trial exposed mogul's reign of terror

Federal guidelines recommended 6-7 years. Why such a large deviation?

"A meaningful sentence is needed to protect the public from further crimes."

But Combs' punishment — on a prostitution conviction related to his ex-girlfriend Cassie Ventura and an influencer known as "Jane"— was more lenient than the roughly six-to-seven-year term recommended under federal guidelines.

Was this a 'slap on the wrist'? I wouldn't know because I didn't watch any of the trial. But, the sentencing guidelines recommended significantly more punishment than he was given. If I were a female victim of this activity, I would be sad to have provided my testimony at all. Let this be a lesson for everyone out there. It really doesn't pay to seek justice from those that are 'in the secret society'. They have a special pass from accountability and justice for 'all'.

The highly anticipated sentencing unfolded in the same courtroom where jurors found Combs guilty July 2 on two counts of transporting people for the purposes of prostitution.

But the jury acquitted Combs of the top counts of sex trafficking and racketeering — charges that could have sent him to prison for life.
